1 My Investment

- Tocqueville Society ($10,000 or more)
A national society originally established by United Way of America to recognize volunteerism, new leadership and to encourage humanitarianism. This is UWBB's most prestigious group of local philanthropists.
- Community Society ($5,000 - $9,999)
This society enables UWBB to recognize donors in the Big Bend who are willing to move to a major-gift level and make extraordinarily generous contributions to their community.
- Live Oak Circle ($4,000 - $4,999)
- Magnolia Circle ($3,000 - $3,999)
- Dogwood Circle ($2,000 - $2,999)
- Azalea Circle ($1,000 - $1,999)

Please note that leadership giving is personal giving. Corporate gifts are not leadership gifts unless the company is wholly owned by an individual.

2 My Leadership Giving Outreach Areas (check all that apply)

- African-American Leadership Outreach – This effort promotes, advances and supports collaborative efforts aimed at addressing the diverse needs of the African-American community in the Big Bend through leadership giving, advocacy and volunteerism.
- Power of the Purse – A forum for women who want to significantly improve the quality of life in the Big Bend through leadership giving, advocacy and volunteerism.

For Young Leaders Only (FYLO)

This program recognizes Leadership Givers under the age of 40* who have the capability and interest in expressing philanthropy at a young age.

*For couples, only one spouse must be under age 40.
